

VIDEOCONFERENCING SERVICES

Connecting you without limits.

With Alaris Videoconferencing Services, you can connect with the deposition witness, the court reporter and other parties remotely, saving the time, cost and hassle associated with travel. Alaris quickly and easily connects all your participants through our secure, global videoconferencing services, including mobile and video/text streaming capabilities.

Due to the current travel restrictions,
WE ARE WAIVING ANY ACCESS FEES ASSOCIATED with videoteleconferences or telephone conferences for the foreseeable future.

Take advantage of the convenience and practicality of videoconferencing to manage a wide variety of meeting needs including:

- Deposing busy expert witnesses
- Collaborating with your legal team across office locations
- Connecting with co-counsel in different jurisdictions
- Accommodating witnesses who are confined to home or a healthcare facility
- Confering with litigation consultants
- Virtual Mediations
- Presenting expert witness testimony at trial
